General McCook Believes Administration Will Give Liliuokalani a Handsome Sum.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—General Edward M. McCook, a member of the famous "Fighting McCook" family, who is now a guest of Charles H. Blinn at 1585 Post street, is of the opinion that as soon as the coming election is over and President McKinley is settled for another term of four years, the administration will take up the crown lands claims of Liliuokalani, the ex-Queen of Hawaii, and settle with her for a handsome sum. As General McCook is known to be a warm personal friend of Senator Mark Hanna and close to the administration, the friends of the deposed Queen are much comforted by the assurances he has given.

The interest taken by General Mc-Cook in the affairs of Hawaii's ex-Queen are due to the fact that he was the first Minister accredited by the Government of the United States to the Hawaiian court, in 1896, and during his term negotiated the first treaty of reciprocity. During his residence in Honolulu his firm attitude toward the threatened British encroachment on Hawaii undoubtedly saved this Government from some very unpleasant diplomatic complications with England.

General McCook entered the Federal army in 1890 as a private in the Kansas Legion, and after a brilliant career of five years rose to the rank of Brigadier General. He was twice appointed by President Grant as Governor of the then Territory of Colorado, and there organized a school system and an immigration board that were instrumental in development. Through his personal efforts the first railroad was built into Denver. He was the first advocate of woman suffrage. After his second term as Governor of Colorado General Mc-Cook declined the portfolio of Postmaster General, tendered to him by President Grant.

A Hoffmann, a banker and capitalist of London, who has been at the Palace Hotel for several days, was former Hawaiian Minister to the Court of St.
James during the reign of the late King Kalakaua. He came here from the East. It is said, with a proposition from an English syndicate to buy the crown land claims of ex-Queen Liliuokalani.

This proposed syndicate deal is the result of a close study of the deposed Queen's claims, and a belief that her demands are just and will meet with the approval of the Government.

Mr. Hoffmann has never visited the Islands, but was appointed to the position of Minister by Kalakaua on the occasion of his late majesty's first visit to London, more than twenty years ago.
He assisted materially in floating the first Hawaiian loan in London, a part of which has been assumed by this Government since annexation. Yesterday Mr. Hoffmann left for New York and will soon sail for London.

HONEYMOON COUPLE HERE

James Rolph, Jr., and Bride Arrive on the Australia.

A honeymoon couple arrived yesterday on the Australia from San Francisco. They are James Rolph, Jr., and bride. The happy pair were married just before the steamship sailed from the Coast. Rolph is the senior member of the firm of Rolph, Hind & Company of San Francisco. Although a new firm it is one of the most enterprising shipping factors on the Coast, the company has about fifteen vessels in service. Rolph comes here to establish an agency of the firm in Honolulu.

The following tells of their marriage:
SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—Trinity Presbyterian church at the corner of Twenty-third and Capp street was last night crowded to its utmost capacity when Miss Annie Marshall Reid became Mrs. James Rolph, Jr. The church was beautifully and tastefully decorated. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Mackenzie of the First Presbyterian church, assisted by the Rev.
L. C. Sanford of St. John's Episcopal church. George U. Hind was the groom's best man, and Miss Jeanie Reid, a sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Mildred T. Rolph, Miss Gertrude Sibbald and Miss Marion Cumming.
The following gentlemen acted as ushers: Ronald T. Rolph, Thomas Rolph, Archibald Reid, Robert C. Reid, James H. Lyons, Henry H. Beatty, Richard N. Nason, Charles W. Haseltine and William Z. Niccol.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolph are prominent in social circles of the Mission. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Reid, a native of San Francisco. Mr.
Rolph is a member of the well-known shipping firm of Hind, Rolph & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolph, Jr., will leave today on the Australia for Honolulu.
They are to be away seven weeks.

Traffic Agreement.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—Beginning with the inauguration of the Oceanic Steamship Company's new steamship service between San Francisco, Hawaii and Australasia, or possibly at an earlier date, a cl traffic arrangement between that company and the Santa Fe will go into effect. It is said that the traffic arrangement will make the Australian line the exclusive ocean connection of the Santa Fe, that joint agencies will be established at Honolulu and other ports reached by the Oceanic steamers, and that freight and passenger business eastbound from Australia, New Zealand and Hawaii will, so far as possible, be billed and ticketed through to the East over the Santa Fe.
